HOW TO FILE AN APPEARANCE OR REQUEST A JURY

1

FILL OUT AND FILE THE FORMS.

Filing an Appearance is the official way to tell the court and the other parties in the case that you are participating in the case and want to be informed about any upcoming court dates or paperwork. It's an important step to make sure you're included in the legal process.

If you want a trial with a judge and a jury (jury trial), you must file a Jury Request. If you want a trial with a judge only (bench trial), do not file a Jury Request form.

After you fill out your forms, file them with the Circuit Clerk's office in the county where your case is taking place. See the How to File the Forms page of this packet for more information.

There may be fees to file your Appearance and Jury Request forms. See the Costs and Fees section on page 2 of this packet for more information, including how to ask to file your forms for free or at a reduced cost.

2

SEND A COPY TO OTHERS IN THE CASE.

You must send a copy of your forms to all other parties in the case.

This packet is not legal advice. It provides general instructions on how to use these forms in your court case. It cannot and does not try to cover everything that might happen in your court case. Your use of the forms does not guarantee you will be successful in court.

How a judge handles a case can vary from county to county. Your county may have special requirements that are not covered in these instructions. Ask the Circuit Clerk's office if your county has local rules and, if so, where you can get a copy.

STEP 1

FILL OUT AND FILE FORMS.

ARE THESE FORMS FOR ME?

Use these forms to officially tell the court and other parties that you are participating in the case, representing yourself, and if you want a jury trial when:

- Your case is a civil case in circuit court. For example, divorce cases, family cases, eviction cases, small claims cases, foreclosure cases, and lawsuits for injury or property damage.
- Filing an Appearance form is required in most civil cases, even if the judge and the other parties already know you want to participate. For example, you must file an Appearance when:
 - Someone sues you and you want to participate in the court case.
 - You had a lawyer, but your lawyer stopped representing you, and you are now going to represent yourself.
- If you do not file an Appearance and go to court as needed, you may not be allowed to participate in the case. The court case might go ahead without you and the judge might rule against you.

Do not use these forms if:

- Your case is a criminal case.
- You usually do not need to file an Appearance when you start a new court case by yourself without a lawyer.
- Unless you are a lawyer, you cannot file an Appearance for anyone else, only for yourself (note: in most cases, companies are required to have a lawyer).

Forms required:

Appearance: the official way to tell the court and the other parties that you are participating in the case.

Forms you may need:

Jury Request: tells the court that you want a trial with a judge and a jury (jury trial). If you would like a jury trial, you must file a Jury Request form.

You can find all of the statewide forms online at: ilcourts.info/forms.

COSTS AND FEES

There may be costs and fees to take part in a court case. This might include fees for filing court documents. Some case types have no fee for filing. Depending on the type of court case, there may be other costs and fees charged – for example, sheriff's fees for serving documents on the other people in the case. If you cannot afford to pay costs and fees, you can ask the court to file for free or at a reduced cost by filing an Application for Waiver of Court Fees.

This is a separate form you can find at: ilcourts.info/fee-waiver-forms.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Why does the Appearance form ask for my email address?

- The email address (if you have one) and mailing address you put on the form is where important court documents will be sent to you. You should list an email address that you do not share with anyone else and that you check every day. If you do not check your email every day, you may miss important information, notice of court dates, or documents from other parties.

Is there a deadline for filing an Appearance?

- The deadline for filing an Appearance is different depending on the type of case and your situation.
- You might have received other court papers, like a Summons or an order signed by a judge, that give you a deadline for filing your Appearance.
- You might give up your right to participate in the court case if you do not file your Appearance on time.

Is there a deadline for filing a Jury Request?

- The deadline for filing a Jury Request is different depending on the type of case and your situation.
- If you are the plaintiff, usually you must file a Jury Request at the same time you file the case. If you are the defendant, usually you must file a Jury Request at the same time as your Appearance.

Is there a cost to file an Appearance or Jury Request?

- Yes. There is usually a fee to file these forms with the Circuit Clerk's office. There is an additional fee to file the Jury Request. Contact the Circuit Clerk's office to find out the cost to file the forms.
- If you cannot afford to pay the filing fee, you can ask to file your forms for free or at a reduced cost by filing an Application for Waiver of Court Fees. This is a separate set of forms you can find at: ilcourts.info/fee-waiver-forms.

HOW TO FILE THE FORMS

E-filing

- After you fill out your court forms, file them with the Circuit Clerk. This is done by electronic filing, called “e-filing.” You do not have to e-file if:
 - You qualify for an exemption (see the Not E-filing section below) or
 - Your case involves a criminal matter or is filed under the Juvenile Court Act of 1987.
- There may be fees to file your forms. See the Costs & Fees section for more information.
- Most people e-file their forms using Odyssey eFileIL at ilcourts.info/efile.
- Follow step-by-step instructions and watch videos that walk you through the steps for e-filing at ilcourts.info/efile-info.
- E-filing is easier on a computer. It may not work on a cell phone or tablet.
- Original wills may not be e-filed.
- If you do not have access to a computer or if you need help e-filing, take your completed forms to a public library or a Circuit Clerk, Appellate Clerk, or Supreme Court Clerk’s office. These places offer public computers where you can e-file your forms.
 - Your courthouse may offer public computers with a scanner where you can turn your paper forms into electronic files.
 - Librarians and courthouse staff may be able to help you e-file, but they cannot provide legal advice.

Not E-filing

- Some people are not required to e-file, which means they can file paper forms at the courthouse or by mail. People who do not have to e-file are:
 - Inmates in prison or jail who do not have a lawyer.
 - People with a disability that keeps them from e-filing.
- You may also qualify for an exemption from e-filing if you:
 - Do not have internet or computer access in your home or can’t meaningfully use it.
 - Do not have an email account.
 - Do not have a credit card, debit card, or bank account.
 - Have trouble reading, writing, or speaking English.
 - Tried to e-file your forms, but you were not able to because the equipment or help you needed was not available.
 - Are filing an emergency case as allowed by local rule or order.
- To ask for an exemption from e-filing, use the form at ilcourts.info/exempt. If you cannot print this form, then ask for it at your local courthouse.
 - File your Certification for Exemption from E-Filing form along with your other court forms at the Circuit Clerk’s office or by mail.
 - Bring or send your signed court forms and at least two copies of your forms to the Circuit Clerk’s office. Ask them to stamp your copies and return them to you.
 - If you need to make copies of your forms, you can do that at the Circuit Clerk’s office. They may charge you a fee to make copies.
- There may be fees to file your forms. See the Costs & Fees section for more information.
- If you mail your court forms to the Circuit Clerk’s office, include a stamped envelope addressed to you. The Circuit Clerk will file your forms and then send your copies back to you in the envelope.

WHAT'S NEXT

STEP 2

Send a copy of your forms to the other people in the case.

- After filing the form, you must send your forms to the other people in the case. If a person in the case has a lawyer, send the forms to the lawyer.
- If you and the person you're sending the forms to each have an email address, you must send the forms by email or electronically through the e-filing system. If either you or the person you're sending the forms to do not have an email address, you may give the forms to the other parties by personal hand delivery, mail, or third-party commercial carrier (for example, FedEx or UPS).
